

We acknowledge and appreciate the time and effort of tenants, staff, stakeholders, and partners who shared their ideas and experiences to help shape this Plan. We heard many ideas from the hundreds of people who participated in engagements.

Over 1,000 TCHC tenants participated, including:

850+ completed
tenant survey responses

150+ youth engaged through a youth survey

40+ seniors engaged through a seniors' survey

Workshops through TCHC's Tenant Community Action Tables (Central, West and East region)

A workshop discussion with the Tenant Advisory Committee

A workshop discussion with Responsible Personal Accessibility in Toronto Housing Committee (R-PATH Committee)

A tenant workshop discussion focused on anti-Black racism.

600+ TCHC staff and management were also consulted, including:

- A staff survey with 480+ surveys completed
- Over 160 staff engaged through workshop discussions
- 15 interviews with City of Toronto leadership and elected officials
- 30+ external partners, including community agencies and the Office of the Commissioner of Housing Equity

Thank you to every participant and contributor – your feedback will help to shape our future.
